The wonder of everyday

A large group in the food industry, a great 100% Italian brand.

Producing in Italy: a guarantee

Orogel made a choice: produce only in Italy in order to promote and enhance the best Italian products and use exclusively integrated and organic farming techniques.

The production process always starts in our farm by choosing the most suitable types of soil and selecting the best seeds to ensure high-quality standards.

Once picked, the products are immediately brought to our factories to be processed and deep frozen.

This is why we make sure all stages are properly planned, from picking to storage.

This activity is essential to guarantee top-quality products.

Yet, the geographical position we have chosen for our production factories is also strategic: no more than 2 hours away from fields

The supply chain: from the field to the table

Product traceability is core to every single stage of processing:

- » Raw materials are grown by our member farmers.
- » Sustainability Orogel, is an all-round commitment involving the whole company and production cycle. These are some of our biggest achievements: Investments in energy production from renewable sources, optimisation of energy consumption, reduction of water consumption, use of recyclable and compostable packaging.
- » The processing plants are cutting-edge and spatially close to the farms in order to guarantee that the vegetables are deep frozen only few hours after harvesting.
- » Quality controls are carried out all along the production chain and are supported by strict lab tests.

Orogel's Certifications
